THE SLEIGH RIDE.

BY "IK FICKLE."

Sleigh ridin'! Why yes, Jack, I'll go And ride with you awhile, Tain't so cold, and the snow is deep And you'll only go a mile.
You know I'm getting old, Jack, Time's footprints on my brow;
I used to brave the cold and snow Better than I do now.

Jack, you remember, we went to meetin' once

Down to old man Pool's, You drove that old bay mule o' your'n, That was such an awful fool.
The drive was only seven miles,
The night was cold and clear;
I wore my new brown lindsey dress,
And you tho't me such a dear.

We were to be married the coming week,
And you said it would be fun After meetin' to get the pastor To splice us two as one.
I agreed, and how the young folks stared When on the floor we stood,
And the dear old preacher said the word That made us one for good.

Many years have passed away, dear Jack—Many changes 'twixt now and then—Our faces are wrinkled and worn with age, But time is the only pen.
And now our sleigh-ride is ended, Jack, Come and sit by my side,
And we'll talk more of those blissful days When I became your bride.

ACADEMY NOTES.

Kelly Nickell spent Saturday and Sunday on Caney.

Leo McCann will resume his duties in school next week.

Nettie Wheeler visited her parents near Mariba Saturday and Sunday.

The daily attendance at the academy is the best in the history of the school.

Beverly Drake spent Friday and Saturday with his parents in Montgomery county.

N. C. Congleton returned from his home Sunday, and reported his mother as much better.

Geo. Wheeler, of Mariba, will soon move to town and put two other children in school.

The carpenters have commenced work again on the addition to the academy, and in ten days we hope to occupy it.

Lula Taulbee and Carrie Amyx, of Daysboro, Sarah Tyler, county, and Lizzie Bailey, town, enrolled last Monday.

The exercises by the Utile Dulci society on Friday afternoon were long-drawn-out. Otherwise they were very good.

Messrs. Frank Cecil, of Grassy, Joseph Rose, of Lacy Creek, and J.
S. Day were among the visitors at the academy Friday afternoon.

Tomorrow (Friday) being Washington's birth day, etc., there will be no recitations in the afternoon, but the Haut et Bon society will give their monthly program at 1:30 o'clock.

Patrons in town will confer a favor upon the management of the school if they will do away with "socials" and "calling among pupils" for at least two months.
What patron will act first?

ACADEMITE.

Salesmen Wanted.

Good wages to sell our nursery stock. Apply for terms. We will have for spring and fall, 1895, an immense stock of apple, pear, peach, plum, apricot, cherry, grape, etc. Also small fruits, shade and ornamental trees, roses, etc. We make a specialty of wholesaling to large planters direct. We will sell to responsible parties and take note payable in 6, 12 and 18 months. Write us for wholesale prices. Address

Winchester, Tenn.

He's a Brute.

Charles T. Morgan, a prominent farmer of Kinney creek, Lewis county, has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of James E. Cooper, charging him with the ruin of his daughter, not yet twelve years of age. She recently gave birth to a child. Cooper is a young man of good parentage.

Too Much Confidence.

Neil Overstreet, a prominent young farmer, son of George Overstreet, of McCracken county, was arrested in Paducah last Friday charged with the seduction of Miss Ada Florence Humphrey, a school teacher. She alleges that he promised to marry her, which he denies.
The case created quite a sensation owing to the prominence of the parties.

When any of our citizens visit Winchester, they will find the restaurant of A. Knadenger the best place in town to get a square meal, and they can save money by patronizing him. He also deals in confectioneries, fruits, cakes, etc., and can furnish fresh bread every day to parties who desire it shipped to them over the Lexington and Eastern railway. -46-3m

Murdered by a Farm Hand.

W. B. Lyle, overseer on the farm of W. S. Chenham, near Longview, Christian county, was killed on the 14th inst. by Peter May, a negro farm hand. The men had quarreled, and May secured a gun and shot Lyle while he was going in the stable, death resulting instantly. A sheriff's posse immediately set out in search of May, who skipped out after committing the crime.

Only a Scar Remains

Scrofula Cured—Blood Purified by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "It is with pleasure that I send a testimonial concerning what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for my daughter. It is a wonderful medicine and I cannot recommend it too highly. Sarah, who is fourteen years old, has been

Afflicted With Scrofula ever since she was one year old. For five years she has had a running sore on one side of her face. We tried every remedy recommended, but nothing did her any good until we commenced using Hood's Sarsaparilla. My married daughter advised me to use Hood's Sarsaparilla because it had cured her of dyspepsia. She had been troubled with that complaint since childhood, and since her cure she has never been without a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the house. We commenced giving it to Sarah about one year ago, and it has conquered the running sore,

Only a Scar Remaining as a trace of the dreadful disease. Previous to taking the medicine her eyesight was affected, but now she can see perfectly. In connection with Hood's Sarsaparilla we have used Hood's Vegetable Pills, and find them the best." Mrs.
M. A. GRIFFIN, Xenia, Illinois.

Hood's Pills cure nausea, sick headache, indigestion, biliousness. Sold by all druggists.
